I love the summer, Hello Sunshine! It is my favorite time of the year.

The trip to Washington DC is always challenging. However, this year it was to attend the 27th Annual Memorial Day Program at The Military Women's Memorial at Arlington National Cemetery.

It is always a humbling experience. The weather was warm that day of the program, and we were fortunate that it was held inside. The day before, we (PNDs Cheri Stanton, Diane Schmidt and I), were able to spend time with Virginia's Echelon #24 Director Rita Chandler, Tonya L. Meunier, and Joyce Miller. The dinner and camaraderie were enjoyable. The 27th Annual Memorial Day Program at The Military Women's Memorial at Arlington National Cemetery was a packed event. The event included formal military honors, remarks from current and former servicewomen from each of the military services, and a keynote address by the Honorable Christine Elizabeth Wormuth the United States Secretary of the Army. Everyone needed to have a tissue. It was an honor to present a wreath this year. I would like to express my gratitude for all who attended. Furthermore, I understood that membership may have grown there too!

It is now the time to focus on the final preparations for the National Bivouac! I am asking that you RSVP to the 2024 Bivouac very soon. It is recommended that you connect with your Echelon Aide. She will send in your registration and fees. I personally ask that you extend the invitation for the banquet to your Department Commanders and Auxiliary Presidents as well as all officers from your Department's Division, Area, District and Posts to attend YOUR National 2024 Bivouac Banquet. Most of all encourage your friends and family to attend with you too! There are several articles provided herein regarding the registration and Bivouac. If you have questions, please reach out to the either the Bivouac NMI or National Aide.

Have a nice Jeepette Summer day.

Semper Fortis

For God, Family and Country, warm regards

Just returned from another phenomenal year serving as a judge for The American Legion National Oratorical Contest. These young scholars generally hail from the 50 states including Puerto Rico and The Department of France. Based upon what was presented, I am optimistic about our future national leaders.

Sunday, things took a turn. I was asked about my all red suit, and I took the opportunity to talk about the Twenty and Four. It was surprising to discover that many legionnaires at the District and Department level had never heard about our Order or mission.

I took the moment to share as I reflected up on the privilege I had to represent Echelon 35 as the featured presenter at a Four Chaplains event. We also participated in an outdoor line dancing event (NO I am not a line dancer), but we were in the cold to raise money and donations for female hygiene products for the women that were admitted at the VA hospital psyche ward.

Not a month goes by...I receive calls, or an email requesting prayers or meditations for various concerns ranging from health reports or words of comfort regarding adult children in tumultuous marriages.

"By nature every human being loves oneself. But by helping another, you are building your own happy future. We should be wise-selfish rather than foolish-selfish." The Dalai Lama.

Enough said!

Greetings Sisters!

I am sorry that I have not had an article in the last couple of Jeeps, but I have been facing some challenges this past winter. But I am now renewed and excited!

We are approaching an active summer and getting ready for our annual National Bivouac. I have been busy with Legion activities, but have also been busy creating items for a Super Silent Auction at our Bivouac. You may not be aware, but I am a crafter. I am attaching photos of some of the items I have made so far for the auction. So bring your checkbooks! There will be at least 10 items to bid on. Remember, this is to support our organization! I am also asking everyone attending to bring something that you have at home that is in good condition for a drawing table. If you wish to donate more than one item, feel free to do so! If we all pitch in, we can raise a lot of money!

I am looking forward to seeing all of you, and making this a successful fundraising year

Just a note: I thought you would like to hear (about me) from the horse's mouth. I came home from the hospital today (May 21) on day 22. My first stay was 26 days followed by 14 days in an assisted living facility, YUK! Still have a lot of PT to do and I'm trying to put on a few pounds as I got down to 94 pounds. On the first go-around, they removed 1/2 of my right foot. That didn't heal well so after dragging around a wound vac for a month, we bit the bullet and went back for a below the knee amputation. My 16 staples came out yesterday. I got my shrinker sock today so I'm on the mend and looking forward to seeing all of you in New Orleans.

Love,
Judi

As the weather down here in Texas gets hotter, we must turn our thoughts to the final preparations for our National Bivouac. Please remember that you must be registered with this National Office in order to be a legal attendee at our Bivouac. Give your name and hotel information to your Echelon Aide and she will send your registration information and $5.00 registration fee to me for advance registration. Have your Bivouac registration into me by August 1, 2024. It is important for these registrations to be submitted on time. Pre-printed name badges will be available for delegates who have completed their registration at the Bivouac registration table. Note that I am NOT handling banquet ticket sales, so please do not send those to me or it will cause delays in getting your reservations confirmed.

I have received updates from several Echelon Aides that have brought our current official totals up to 83.44% of goal for the year. Seven Echelons have reached or surpassed 100% of their total membership from last year and four Echelons have reached or surpassed 100% of Goal. At this time there is only one Echelon that has not sent in a transmittal. Current membership counts by Echelon can be seen on the website at <https://twentyandfour.org/blog/membership-counts/>. This page is updated as transmittals are processed with the date posted clearly on the page.

Remember to submit your Report to Annual Bivouac by July 15, 2024. You can submit it by email or snail mail. It would be nice to have 100% participation. Also, send me your officer certification for 2024-2025.

Until the next issue, be kind to one another and remember we are all human with our own strengths and weaknesses. We all have the same goal; to help this organization not only survive but thrive. Together we can make a difference for our sisters in arms.

20/4, THE HONOR SOCIETY FOR WOMEN LEGIONNAIRES, 1st NATIONAL MEETINGS — Miami, Florida — October 8 & 9, 1995

Saturday Afternoon, 8 Oct. 1955, cont'd

Mrs. Meryl McDonald, President of Washington's XV's, asked for the floor and read the resolution instructing her to request this National Convention to change the Honor Society for Women Legionnaire's name to XV. She explained the pro's of this name and stated that the "X" stands for Ex-servicio, "V" stands for the 5 branches of service Women have served in through World War II. Mrs. Margaret O. Moors, Florida, then explained that the Florida Honor Society for Women Legionnaires means: "52" is the year a Florida State Non-profit Charter was granted, in Circuit Court of Orange County Florida, and the "8" stands for the branches of service women have served in, and all they'll ever serve in, up to and through the Korean situation, ie, ANC, NNC, WAVES, MARINES, YOMEN F, WAC, SPARS, WAF. Miss Mary Gordon, Echelon #1, 20/4, (Calif.) then explained out a group of 5 California women thought up the idea of this name, 20 women and, or in, 4 jeeps, at a Department Convention in Long Beach 4 years ago. She stated that the California members, of course, feel that 20/4 is the best name, but if this first National Convention wished to change the name, that would be the desire of the majority present.

Mrs. Margaret C. Moors, Senior Director 20/4 – Echelon No. 5, the mentioned the fact that 20/4 is already established and known all over the country as The Honor Society for Women Legionnaires, and if the name is changed now it would mean starting all over again and possibly losing the ground we have gained from being recognized at the National American Legion Convention, held Washington, D., C., 1954. Much other discussion resulted the pertinent facts that there are 24 other Departments of The American Legion presently interested in joining the 20/4 and they would be utterly confused by a name change now, and that we have to think of the future that a good foundation has already been built for. As part of showing how good this future already is, Mrs. Florence English, Past Director VIP, California, (also Chairman of Organization at the National level) read the Resolution from Oregon's 1954 Department Convention, authorizing the Oregon XV's to change the organization's name to conform to the action taken by the National American Legion Convention, Wash. D.C. 1954, in recognizing the 20/4, Honor Society for Women Legionnaires. She also stated that Florida, which was organized as the 52/8 in 1952, voted in the 1954 Mid-winter Conference to change their name, and asked for permission to retain the 52/8, and became Echelon No. 5, 20/4; and that by Department mandate of the Florida Department Convention, held in Sarasota, Fla., May 1955, such change was authorized in their own home state. She then pointed out that California's Department Executive Committee authorized a committee to organize the 20/4 in 1952, and recognized the organization as an affiliate of the Dept. in Convention of 1953; Mass. Department Executive Committee recognized the 20/4 in 1954, and their resolution was the one mandated by National American Legion Convention of 1954; and the District of Columbia has recognized the Honor Society for Women Legionnaires this year, and several other Department Commanders have set up chairmen of organization in their own departments. Mrs. English stated there are 24 Departments in the process of organizing 20/4 Echelons and the facts show 5 Departments already operating as 20/4. The majority present voted to continue the National Honor Society for Women Legionnaires as the 20/4. Mrs. McDonald, then told the meeting that her XV Honor Society had also chosen an alternate name of VIP, but since the majority vote had shown the wishes to remain 20/4, she would report back to her Department and hoped they would soon be in our National Organization.

Montana Echelon is on the map

Submitted by Chaya Semple, Aide, MT 9

Again, Montana Echelon 9 has reached out to the Community to assist as needed.

A BIG Congratulations goes out to Denice Cook who was recently recognized by the American Red Cross for donating 15 gallons of blood to date. GO GIRL!!

Deborah Hancock and Top Hat Roger Hancock repaired the flag pole at Woodman School (a small rural school) and conducted hands-on training on flag etiquette to the students.

Sue Davidson has been very busy with Quilts of Honor. She has made many herself and collected over 70 patriotic quilts for the Veterans Home in Butte. In addition, Sue has conducted a number of quilt- making workshops to keep up with the demand. Her participation at the recent 4 Chaplains Ceremony was appreciated and noticed. Another Jeepette devoting time and energy to her Community, State and Nation.

Our Top Hat Lowell Long brought honor in his participation as he participated in our statewide 4 Chaplains Service at Fort Harrison as well as conducting a 4 Chaplains Service at his local Church.

Our Echelon has been very busy working on amending our Bylaws.

Montana Echelon 9 and American Legion Lewis and Clark Post 9 are intrigued with the recent talk given by Historian Dr Elizabeth Cook: "War is changing so incredibly fast. What folks remember in Viet Nam is long gone. We get closer and closer to "push button" war which is reference to the Korean War. Back then it was only imagined a nuclear war. Today, it is a combination of autonomous weapons, Artificial Intelligence, and a myriad of other supporting technologies." Photo: Dr Elizabeth Cook, Phd

Speedy recovery and prayers for one of Montana #9's ardent supporters:

WORDS

Words are powerful. Our words can incite hate and rebellion or invite peace and love and everything in between.

I hear a lot of discussion about the First Amendment "Right to Speech" from all sides of the political spectrum. But it seems like almost everyone wants to incite hate, rather than invite love. I hear a lot from people who hate people they don't know but not much about people they love. Social media has inflated this problem. I read with sadness the venom spewed by political zealots and it seems like almost everyone has become a political zealot. What I have NOT seen is anyone at ALL who says, "Oh, maybe you are right. I've changed my (political) mind." Words of antagonism; and hostility can only increase the great divide that already separates us. These words are great bullets that invite retaliation of greater bullets from the "enemy."

I'm getting older and gone are the days of my youth when I could sit with someone from another political party and have a discussion. I miss that. A LOT.

Hate speech can only harm. It cannot heal. It incites your political "family" to shouts of agreement, but never, NEVER changes the minds of your political opponents.

So, I love prayers. Ministers and Chaplains always put away their political biases and pray for "our leaders" whether they agree with their political views or not.

And I love my military Sisters. We speak powerful words too, but uplifting words of encouragement, love, empathy and peace. We have so much uniting us that we don't have much at all that divides us.

We are family.

Women Leaders Provided by Lisa Dayhoff

Women have made tremendous strides in breaking down barriers and entering leadership roles within organizations, but they still face numerous challenges, especially in male-dominated environments. Despite the significant progress that has been made towards gender equality in recent decades, women in leadership roles continue to encounter obstacles that can hinder their success and advancement. By understanding these challenges and developing strategies to overcome them, women can thrive in leadership positions within male-dominated organizations.

One of the primary challenges that women face in male-dominated organizations is the pervasive gender bias that exists in the workplace. Stereotypes and preconceived notions about gender roles can create a hostile environment for women seeking leadership roles, leading to discrimination, lack of opportunities, and unequal treatment. Overcoming these biases requires women to assert themselves confidently, demonstrate their capabilities, and challenge stereotypes by showcasing their leadership skills and qualities.

Another challenge for women in leadership roles is the lack of representation and support networks. In male-dominated organizations, women may find themselves isolated and without access to mentorship, sponsorship, or role models who can guide and support them in their leadership journey. Building relationships and networks with other women in leadership positions, seeking out mentors, and advocating for mentorship programs within the organization can help women overcome this challenge and gain the support they need to succeed.

Moreover, work-life balance issues can be particularly challenging for women in leadership roles, especially in male-dominated environments where long hours, demanding workloads, and a culture of presenteeism are prevalent. Juggling professional responsibilities with family commitments and personal life can lead to burnout and hinder women's ability to thrive in leadership positions. By setting boundaries, prioritizing self-care, and advocating for flexible work arrangements, women can better manage their work-life balance and prevent burnout.

Additionally, the lack of access to leadership development opportunities and advancement pathways can impede women's progress in male-dominated organizations. Women may encounter barriers to promotion, unequal pay, and limited opportunities for career advancement compared to their male counterparts. By seeking out leadership training programs, skill-building workshops, and opportunities for professional development, women can enhance their leadership capabilities, expand their skills, and position themselves for success in leadership roles.

In conclusion, women in leadership roles within male-dominated organizations face unique challenges that require resilience, determination, and strategic navigation. By understanding and addressing these challenges head-on, women can overcome obstacles, shatter glass ceilings, and thrive in leadership positions. Through empowerment, support, and advocacy for gender diversity and inclusion, women can pave the way for future generations of female leaders and create a more equitable and diverse workplace for all. Our members are leading the way for other female veterans within The American Legion and elsewhere. We should always remember to lead by example and to treat our fellow veterans with the same respect that we expect to receive from them in return.
